

Festival for Peace

Music, forums, workshops and events for children

Presented by a chorus of women

28 March – 2 April 2015, Albert Hall, Commonwealth Avenue, Canberra

We Sing to Open Up Hearts to the Truth of Many Sufferings:

amongst indigenous peoples, refugees,
animals, war-torn peoples,
the Earth itself

Our redress of these injuries is our path to a higher Humanity

8 pm Friday, May 1

Albert Hall

Commonwealth Ave., ACT

Composers: Judith Clingan, Honey Nelson et al.

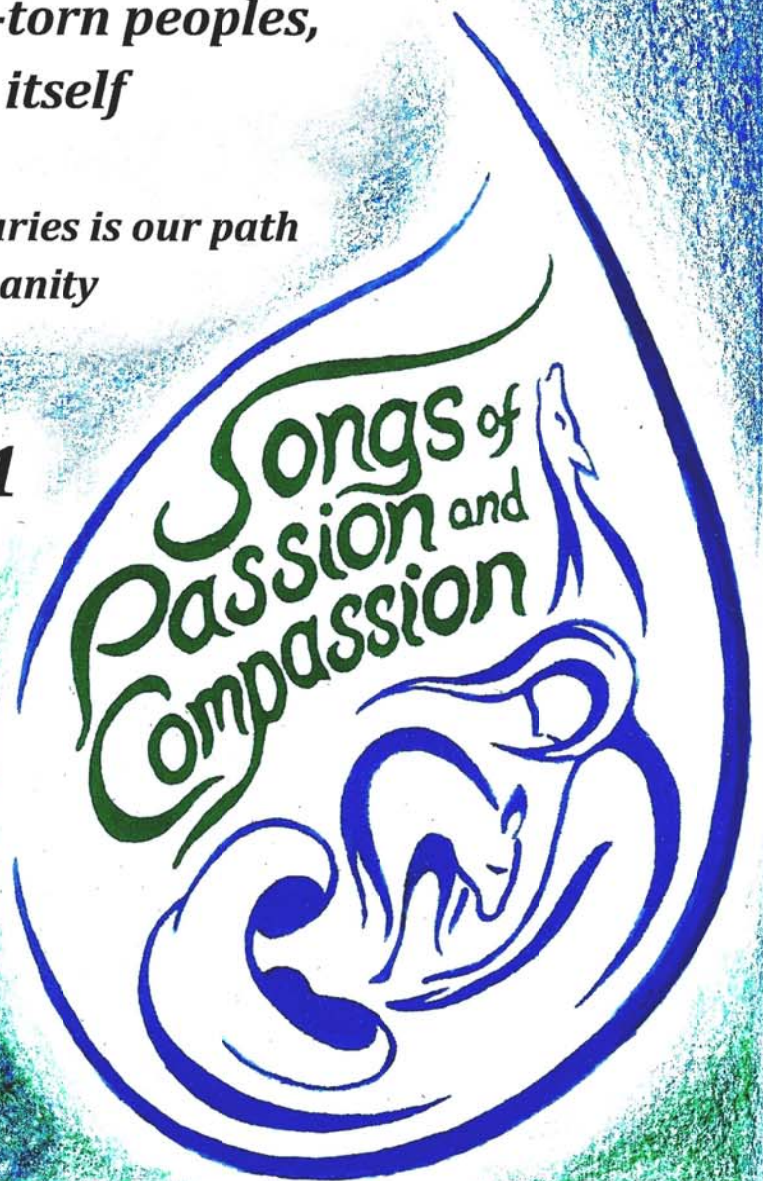

Singers include Greta Claringbould,

Hannah Bleby, Maartje Sevenster,

George Brenan

Instrumental ensemble

Direction Judith Clingan AM

The Festival for Peace is inspired by the centenary of the International Congress of Women held at The Hague in April 1915, and also features performances of A Passion for Peace, a new choral and dramatic work by Glenda Cloughly, musical direction by Johanna McBride.

For further information, and Tickets to all concerts and performances:

www.chorusofwomen.org (door sales available also)