

Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (ACT)

WILPF women, together with A Chorus of Women, invite you to a simple ceremony in which we pause to remember the tragedy of Hiroshima and recommit ourselves to work for the banning of nuclear weapons. Please bring flowers to place at the base of Ethos

HIROSHIMA DAY
70th Anniversary Commemoration

Thursday 6 August 2015 12.30 to 1pm

Civic Square, London Circuit

Welcome and Acknowledgement

A Chorus of Women will sing

Speaker: Sue Wareham: A Nuclear Weapons Ban Treaty

Sue is Australian Vice-President, and ACT Co-ordinator of the Medical Association for Prevention of War (MAPW), Board Member in Australia of the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN).

Laying of flowers around the base of Ethos: Lest We Forget

Poetry Reading

Chorus of Women

Close

Further information: margaretbearlin@gmail.com or 0408 803 653. Please call Margaret if you have a poem you would like to read

